Principles of Liberty

IN CONGRESS. JULY 4, 15-6. Principles 7 & 8 paral declare the cause which important Strates and the cause which important the cause of the c do write have consoled him with another and to which to the opinions of mankind requires that they and racion. had they are endowed by then & will do are instituted among then, deriving their pour of on the convent of the governo - Inal consucre in the provide and cocons detaching these The, it is the convent laying its journation of The Color of The so to wood she it and to institute new the dujet and Happings . Frudence indeed The has I will by the Comment of the has a series of the transfer of the transfer of the transfer of the has a series of the transfer of the has a series of the transfer of t theres unusual uncomfortable and listant for the desirator of his flecte strong for the cote fluster of palgoing him into along time ofter ouch dipolite ing in the mean time exposed the is to sent in the region of the flopulation of their estates a faithfur for the whole ling the Lows jos Hateranization while so is come to a relation of enter springer when of Lands. Ultrainishation of justice to a Government does and flar more of their us in times of force She with their to junged in to a not grant rights but has the by the lies of our common kindred to the Cost of Spin Consanguinity. We must have pure the Reference of the tentions, do in the . Tame and by States; that they are the ordered from all thinging to the color of th and our facied honor maintain, and protect them.