

The end of law
is not to abolish or
restrain, but to preserve and
enlarge
freedom.

—John Locke—