

- Legislators (members of Congress and of the various state legislatures) make laws.
- Executives (the president and the governors of the states) enforce the laws.
- Judges interpret the laws.