

[O]ne can scour the Scriptures with a fine-tooth comb and find nary a word from Jesus that endorses the forcible redistribution of wealth by political authorities. None, period.

Lawrence W. Reed, president emeritus of the Foundation for Economic Education

