

Charity is no part of the legislative duty of the [federal] government.

---

James Madison

---

James Madison also said,

It is the mutual duty of all to practice Christian forbearance, love, and charity toward each other.