

So great moreover is the regard of the law for private property, that it will not authorize
the least violation of it;
no, not even for the general
good of the whole community.

—Sir William Blackstone—