IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776. The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

apume among the powers of the earth, the peparate and equal plan in the police of human events, it from s necessary for me and to a police the political bands which have connected them with another, and to apume among the pewers of the earth, the peparate and equal plan in the provident of the provident of the opinions of mankind requires that they though declare the causes which impel them to the polaration . should declare the causes which impel them to the Separation with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happineps. _ That to beere tights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their justice from the consent of the governed, _ That whenever any For microsofters of the entry of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happinefs. Orudence, ended, orms to which they are accustomed. But when along train of abuses and refurpations, pursuing invariably the same • Rights are inextricably linked to God's laws. Government does not grant rights but has the responsibility to recognize, maintain, and gislative flowers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise time, after such disolutions, to cause offer to be elected; whereby the Legislative flowers, in capable of Annihilation, have returned to the Teople at large for their exercise; the state remain the mean time of the Contract of the contra there to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of Lands. He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount istration of Justice, by refusing his afsent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers. has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither fwarms of Officers to harrafs our Reople, and cat out their fubstance. us, in times of peace, Standing armies without the Consent of our legislatures. there to fubject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his affent to their acts of pretended Legislation : _ For Guartering large bodies of